—Again this morning there was no session of the Police Court.

—Miss Jean Hill, No. 41 King street west, left to-day for New York.

—Band at Crescent rink to-night. Carnival and skating race on Tuesday evening next.

—Claude Cudney, a young Canadian, fell from a boat in the Niagara River, off Buffalo, and was drowned.

—Rev. W. J. Clark, of London, so well known in Hamilton, will conduct anniversary services in St. Paul's Church to-morrow.

—The Orchestra of Centenary Church will assist the choir of Zion Tabernacle in the service there to-morrow morning.

—Bishop DuMoulin is to preach the second of his series of Lenten Sunday evening services at Christ Church Cathedral to-morrow.

—Rev. John Gillespie, rector of the Church of the Messiah, Toronto, will preach at both services in the Church of Ascension to-morrow.

—Rev. W. H. Wade, rector of the Church of Ascension, will preach in the Church of the Messiah, Toronto, at both services to-morrow.

—Mr. Boyle, of Toronto, Secretary of the Ontario Historical Society, is to read a paper before the Wentworth Historical Society on "Human Paradoxes" the week after next.

—Patrick Kenney, and Aylmer Almas, entertained about 80 of their friends to a masquerade last evening. A most enjoyable time was spent. The costumes were exceedingly funny.

—F. M. Howard and Dr. J. C. Sweet will play a clarionet and horn duet, with orchestral accompaniment, at the Opera House Sunday afternoon service to-morrow.

—Mr. Murray Hendrie, of this city, attended the supper given last night by Mr. G. W. Beardmore, master of the Toronto Hunt Club, to the farmers of the county of York.

—Rev. A. H. Ranton, evangelist, will occupy the pulpit at the First Methodist Church again to-morrow. The special services will be continued every evening next week.

—Mr. Hugh Gorman, who is suffering with brain fever, ran away from St. Joseph's Hospital in his bare feet this morning, while his nurse was absent for a few minutes.

—Miss E. Kerr, matron of the Salvation Army Rescue Home, found a pocketbook containing United States money at the G. T. R. station yesterday. She handed it to Chief Smith.

—The collars that are being sold at waugh's, 10c or 3 for 25c, are 4-ply and the latest make by the largest manufacturer in Canada; warranted to wear well or money back. Post-office opposite.

—John Campbell, successor to Campbell & Pentecost, has an attractive advertisement in another page. Many novelties at special prices aer announced, which every lady should consider.

—The ambulance had a trip out on the Plains road this afternoon to bring Mrs. Hatley, aged 70, into the city. The old lady fell downstairs on Tuesday last and injured her hip severely. She will be nursed at her son's home on Tiffany street.

—Mr. A. B. Appleby, hide dealer, Jackson street, received a telegram last night to the effect that his mother was slightly injured in a smash-up on the Union Pacific Railway while coming to this city. She will arrive here to-morrow.

—In Gore Street Church to-morrow evening Rev. G. K. Adams will preach to young men, the subject being, "The Hero of the Hornets' Nest." An attractive feature of the service will be a selection by the male quartette and a duet by Mr. Irish and Miss Addison.

—The funeral of Alexander Daly took place from the residence of his father, 32 Shaw street this afternoon. The notice in yesterday's issue stating that the funeral would be on Sunday was a mistake. Rev. Mungo Fraser conducted the services.

—J. Mittenthal, the James street picture framer, who reported yesterday that several hundred feet of picture frames were stolen from him, was put through a rigid examination at police headquarters this morning by Chief Smith and Inspector McMahon. The result is the detectives are not now looking for stolen frames.

—Mr. H. E. Rulon, representing the H. H. Munyon Co., of Philadelphia, is in the city, interviewing the druggists, with a view to placing the "Munyon inhaler" on sale here. There is no doubt that it will be in much demand, as many wonderful cures of asthma and catarrh have been wrought by its use.

—Mr. Edward McIntyre, of this city, denies the statement of a contemporary yesterday, that he is trying to have an investigation set on foot regarding the sudden death of his brother, John McIntee, in Burford, some days ago. The late Mr. McIntee changed his name some years ago. He was married, but had no childern.

—The lecture advertised to be given by Father Ryan, of Toronto, under the auspices of the Women's Art Association will be one to draw a crowd next Tuesday evening. Father Ryan is one of the most witty, eloquent and entertaining speakers in Canada, and as he takes a warm and intelligent interest in art, his lecture is sure to be a treat.

—Saul Jacobs was sent to Sing Sing a year ago to serve an eight-year sentence for selling brass filings as gold to a Cleveland man. Now comes the confession of Nathan Schetman that he, and not Jacobs, was the guilty man. The "gold" was alleged to be from Siberia, the same story that failed to raise money here about two years ago.

—Mr. Arthur S. Barnard, a Hamilton boy, now electrician on the Dixie, in the U. S. navy, will shortly leave for a three years' cruise on the Kearsarge, one of Uncle Sam's new warships, which will be attached to the China station. Mr. Barnard has been cruising about on the Buffalo and Dixie, and has seen some exciting times. His friends here will be pleased to hear of his success.

The dedication of the new Barton Street Methodist Church takes place to-morrow. In the morning Rev. W. L. Rutledge, B. A., preaches, In the afternoon, at 2.30, the President of Hamilton Conference, Rev. F. E. Nugent, of Hespeler, will preach the dedication sermon, and then conduct the dedication service, assisted by city ministers. The President will again preach in the evening.

—At the Grand Opera House service to-morrow afternoon the illustrated subject by Rev. T. Albert Moore will be "Taking care of number one." Miss Grace Awrey, W. Green and George J. Clark will contribute solos. Howard's orchestra will give musical selections. The singing will be led by the volunteer choir and orchestra. Patrons coming at 3 o'clock will find comfortable seats in the gallery entrance on Gore street.

—A very pleasant gathering was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, at the Beach, last night, when thirty members and friends of Benevolence Circle, No. 115, Companions of the Forest, enjoyed themselves in music, songs and parlor games. The following took part: Mr. and Mrs. Stocker, Miss Robins, Miss Muir, and Miss Annie Whitney, Wm. Klingbeil, Ed. Klainka and J. McIndoe. Captain Campbell gave an enjoyable recitation. Refreshments were served, and the merry party returned by special car at an early hour.

February 26, 1899

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

LOOK UP!

Keep a heart that in all weather
Joyous is, and altogether
  Knows no fret nor care.
Rest your eyes in sunny meadows,
Not upon the twilight shadows,
  And let not despair
Rob you of the hope of pleasure
For to-morrow. Cheer's a treasure Buried everywhere.

—C Company of the Thirteenth Battalion will hold an oyster supper on March 10th.

—Prof. C. Chase will hold a masquerade ball in Sweeney's Hall on Wednesday evening.

—A pair of gloves were stolen last evening from Walter Nichol, of Temple's livery barn.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Counsell, Hamilton, Ont., are guests at The Colonial, Mt. Clemens, Mich.

—A meeting of the directors of the Hamilton Art School will be held on Wednesday next, at 5 p.m.

—Clarence Eddy, the celebrated organist, was in the city Sunday, being the guest of Mrs. D. J. O'Brien.

—Miss M. Taylor, King street west, has returned from a trip east, in search of spring novelties in the millinery trade.

—Anniversary services will be conducted in Wesley Methodist Church on Sunday, March 12th, by Rev. Dr. Briggs, of Toronto.

—The West Durham Old Boys' will hold a banquet at Coleman's, Toronto, to-morrow evening. Tickets may be had of C. R. McCullough.

—Messrs. James Cooper, James Dixon and Geo. Elder will represent Court Canada, C. O. F., at the High Court session in Brantford to-morrow.

—Rev. Dr. Gee will preach the initial sermon this evening at the special evangelistic services in the new Barton Street Methodist Chruch.

One said her lover must be brave;
One said her lover must be tall;
A third would have man for her slave;
The fourth would like him rich—
that's all.

—A mission will be held in St. Lawrence Church, beginning on March 12th, and continuing for two weeks. Rev. Father O'Brien, S. J., will conduct it.

—The British amateur photographic interchange set will be shown at the Camera Club meeting to-morrow night and there will be a business meeting after the exhibition.

—Hon. Dr. Montague will preside at the lecture by Rev. Father Ryan of Toronto, in aid of the Woman's Art Association, in the Waldorf Hotel, to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. McDonald and Miss Tanner will sing a duet.

—Hugh Gorman, who escaped from St. Joseph's Hospital on Saturday morning, was found in the gutter on King street, west of the city limits. Gorman was driven back to the hospital by a farmer on Saturday night. He has brain fever.

—Mr. Robert Burns, an old resident of this city, and former employee of the Grand Trunk Railway, died at Wyandotte, Mich., on Saturday. The remains will be brought to this city for interment, the funeral taking place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the residence of Mr. Frank Edgar, No. 175 MacNab street north.

February 27, 1899